WELCOME TO TONIGHT

On behalf of Ace Africa, I want to welcome you very warmly to tonight's event. We hope you all have a wonderful and enjoyable evening in the spectacular surroundings of One Marylebone. Whether you are already supporters of Ace Africa or friends and guests, thank you very much for joining us tonight.

The first aim of the evening is of course for you all to enjoy yourselves – but we also want to give you an insight into what Ace Africa does, why we do it and the impact of our work. We want to show you the sort of things that money raised tonight will allow us to do. We operate in some of the most disadvantaged communities in Kenya and Tanzania, where the daily challenges of life are very different to those that we face here. We are delighted to have Augustine Wasonga and Joe Waddington, two of our founders, here tonight.

Our last event was in 2013, when we celebrated our tenth anniversary. During that evening we were able to raise, through a very successful pledge, enough money to establish 30 “Child-to-Child” clubs. These clubs are a highly effective way to help vulnerable children support each other in dealing with such issues as child rights, abuse and sexual violence as well as nutrition and personal hygiene. Tonight we will be requesting your help for our new “One Stop Centres” which target vulnerable young women dealing with abuse and exploitation.

Since 2013 much has happened. We have recently started work in the very challenging environment of Kome Island thanks to the Innocent and Vitol Foundations. We have expanded our livelihoods programme into new areas of Bungoma, Kenya through the generous support of the Addax & Oryx Foundation. Together with Future Stars and Eton College, we put on a hugely successful and popular football programme in Tanzania. And these are just a few examples.

We were all thrilled when Ace Africa Tanzania received a prestigious Stars Impact award in the category of health, given in person by President Bill Clinton to Joe Waddington in December 2014. This was particularly gratifying because Ace Africa Kenya had received the same award previously, also after operating for six years – a strong external validation of the impact of our work.

There has been a huge amount of work involved to put together tonight's event. I want to thank all our co-hosts, in particular Phil Howard, who has produced the wonderful food for the evening, and all members of the event committee for persuading so many friends to buy tickets and tables. Many thanks too to all those who have so generously contributed by way of sponsorship, items for auction and volunteering their time – and of course, a particular and heartfelt thank you to Helen Fairclough, Rosa de Mello do Rego, Patrick Drummond and Ace UK Director Margarida Villas-Boas, for their invaluable support.

With many thanks - and very best wishes for a memorable night

John Collenette, Chair of Trustees Ace Africa (UK)

ESUPATI'S STORY

LIKAMBA VILLAGE, MUSA, ARUSHA, TANZANIA

15-year old Esupati lives with her mother and two sisters in Likamba village in rural Tanzania. Due to mental health problems, Esupati did not attend school and this coupled with her mother's status as HIV+ the family was isolated from the wider community. In early 2014, Esupati's 55-year old uncle waited until she was alone at home and raped her. Esupati was found later that day by her mother Enoiti, severely traumatised and physically injured.

In the wake of this attack, Enoiti contacted the local Ace Africa volunteer who reported the case to the Ace established Child Rights Committee. Unfortunately, Esupati was not medically treated within 24-hours and thus the police case was severely delayed. The proposed Ace 'One-Stop Centre' would have been able to provide all these necessary services under one roof.

Ace provided Esupati with counselling and medical treatment and with our support the case was reported to the District Court and protection was provided for the family within the village. Additionally, the Tanzania Women Lawyers Association granted Esupati pro bono support.

Today, Esupati and her family receive continued protection from their village and clan leaders. The household has been included in the Ace Africa programme and Enoiti has received training, counselling and support from local community groups. Esupati has also been enrolled in a specialist school. The final hearing is expected in April 2015 and it is anticipated that Esupati's uncle will be jailed for up to 30 years.

ONE-STOP CENTRES

TONIGHT HELP SUPPORT 1,000 VULNERABLE GIRLS

Through your pledge this evening we hope to raise £50,000 for Ace Africa to support 10 One-Stop Centres and our wider programme.

Incidences of rape, sexual abuse, female genital mutilation, early child marriage and child labour are on the rise across rural areas of Tanzania and Kenya. Unfortunately Esupati is not alone in her predicament.

Many cases continue to go unreported, as culture and stigma prevail. Girls have no voice and are too traumatised to walk the long distances to police and health centres to report their cases. In instances where they do manage this impossible task, their case is treated with disdain leaving the crime unresolved and hidden.

Ace Africa is there to support these girls and give them a voice. This takes more than just engaging the girls themselves and requires commitment from the wider community. Ace works closely with the Ministry of Health, mental health practitioners, Ministry of Education, the judiciary, police, community and religious leaders to bring cases of abuse to court and to enable affected children and their families to remain in the community, unthreatened.

Ace Africa intend to establish 'One-Stop Centres' within our community resource centres in remote rural villages. These One Stop Centres are access points for the most marginalised members of the community, especially adolescent girls reducing the distance they have to travel and time it takes to report. Ace Africa is committed to training field officers and our network of community volunteers to ensure these centres are available day in day out to the vulnerable offering referrals to trauma counselling, medical examination, incident registration with police, Ace psychosocial support before, during and after court cases, pro-bono legal support, education with the community on reintegration and securing victims safety.

The items offered in this sale and listed in this catalogue will be sold by Ace Africa, registered with the charity commissioners under number 1111283. Any questions in relation to the auction should be directed to Ace Africa and not to the auctioneer who serves merely as auctioneer for Ace Africa in conducting the sale and participates on the following terms and conditions which govern the sale of all the property offered (as amended by any posted notices or oral announcements during the auction):

- Neither Ace Africa nor any person or entity associated with Ace Africa or with the auction assumes any risk, liability or responsibility for the goods, services and /or property identified in this catalogue, for their quality or otherwise.
- All lots, property, goods and services are sold with all faults and imperfections and errors of description and neither Ace Africa nor any person or entity associated with Ace Africa or with the auction makes any representations or warranties of any kind or nature, expressed or implied, with respect to the lots, property, goods and /or services and in no event shall they be responsible for the correctness of any descriptions of the lots, property, goods and /or services nor be deemed to have made, any representations or warranties of physical condition, size, quality, rarity, importance, genuineness, attribution, authenticity or provenance of the property. No statement in the auction catalogue or other description made at the sale, in any sale invoice or elsewhere, shall be deemed such a representation or warranty.
- By bidding at the auction, the bidder expressly waives any rights, claims or actions which might otherwise exist against Ace Africa and any person or entity associated with Ace Africa and the auctioneer in respect of any defects, losses, damages or claims arising from goods or services auctioned.
- No responsibility whatsoever is taken by anyone associated with this auction with respect to donors who may cease to trade before the fulfilment of their auction commitment.
- Ace Africa has endeavoured to catalogue and describe the items and services correctly, but everything is sold "as is". Certain auction items and /or services may have restrictive use or other qualifications which may affect value, application or use thereof.
- Auctioned items including vacation homes are non-transferrable. Purchasers are bound by the precise restrictions specified by the donors. The terms are not negotiable. Please read the specifications and limitations carefully. Ace Africa and the donors reserve the right to impose such further restrictions as they deem reasonably appropriate in relation to the activities and or properties auctioned herein. Successful bidders agree that the property owners and Ace Africa, their agents, and employees shall have no liability whatsoever arising from the use of the properties and their associated facilities by any occupant of the successful bidder and further agree, if requested, to sign an agreement to that effect. If requested by the property owners, successful bidders agree to sign an agreement indemnifying the property owners and Ace Africa for any losses or damages to the properties and their associated facilities caused by any occupant of the successful bidder.
- Reservations for the use of property, tickets, etc. must be mutually arranged between the successful bidders and the donors unless otherwise specified.
- Unless otherwise stated, dates and times are to be arranged at the mutual convenience of the donor and buyer.
- Persons under the age of 21 may not bid in the auction.
- Any lot or property may be withdrawn by Ace Africa or the auctioneer at any time before the actual sale.
- Unless otherwise announced on the evening, all bids are per lot as numbered in the catalogue.
- SILENT AUCTION RULES: 12. The silent auction closing times will be posted and announced during the course of the evening. 13. Bidding in the silent auction will be conducted on the iBid equipment provided. Instructions for the use of the iBid equipment are located on page 42 of this programme. 14. The person offering the highest qualifying bid prior to the close of bidding will be deemed the winner. Late bids will not be accepted. The decision of the person closing the auction is final. The winning bids will be displayed after closing.
- LIVE AUCTION RULES: 15. Ace Africa and / or the auctioneer reserve the right to reject a bid from any bidder. The highest bidder acknowledged by the auctioneer shall be the purchaser. In the event of any dispute between bidders, the auctioneer shall have sole and final discretion either to determine the successful bidder or to re-offer and resell the lot in dispute. If any dispute arises after the sale, the sale records of Ace Africa shall be conclusive in all respects. 16. If the auctioneer determines that any opening bid is not commensurate with the value of the property, he may reject the same and withdraw the property from sale, and if, having acknowledged an opening bid, he decides that any advance thereafter is insufficient, he may reject the advance. 17. On the fall of the auctioneer's hammer or equivalent, the highest bidder shall be deemed to have purchased the offered lot subject to all of the conditions set forth herein and thereupon (a) assumes the risk and responsibility thereof, (b) will sign a confirmation of purchase thereof and (c) will pay the full purchase price.
- PLEDGING RULES: 18. Pledging on Live Pledge will be conducted on the iBid equipment provided. Instructions for use of the iBid equipment are located on page 42 of this catalogue. 19. Pledges are binding commitments to pay the amount pledged and, once made, may not be withdrawn.
- PAYMENT RULES: 21. Ace Africa will not release a lot to a successful buyer until payment of the total amount due has been received by Ace Africa in cleared funds. If the foregoing conditions and other applicable conditions are not complied with, in addition to other remedies available to Ace Africa by law including, without limitation, the right to hold the purchaser liable for the bid price, Ace Africa, at its option, may either (a) cancel the sale, retaining as liquidated damages all payments made by the purchaser or (b) resell the property on three days notice to the purchaser and for the account and risk of the purchaser, either publicly or privately, and in such event the purchaser shall be liable for payment of any shortfall between the original sale price and the price achieved upon resale, all other charges due hereunder and any incidental damages. 22. Payments for purchases will be accepted in cash, by cheque or by all major credit cards, excluding AMEX. Payments should be made payable to Ace Africa. 23. Payments can be made by cheque on the evening at the cashiers table. For those items present on the night, payment must be made at the cashiers table if the winning bidder intends to take their item. Alternatively you will be contacted following the event to make payment and arrange delivery. 24. In no circumstances will Ace Africa refund any purchase made or refund the amount paid in respect of any lot. 25. Neither shipping nor delivery costs are included in the price at which a lot is purchased. 26. These conditions of sale, as well as the purchaser's and Ace Africa's rights and obligations hereunder, shall be governed by and construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of England and Wales. The purchaser shall be deemed to have consented to the exclusive jurisdiction of courts of England and Wales.

Helping communities to build a better future

The Waitrose Foundation is a partnership created in 2005 to help improve the lives of the farm workers and smallholders who grow our produce in South Africa, Kenya and Ghana. During a speech he made in parliament Winston Churchill once said, "we make a living by what we get and we make a life by what we give" - and how appropriate are these words when considering the work being done by the Waitrose Foundation.

Instead of funding through a price premium, Waitrose - in conjunction with growers, importers and exporters, passes a percentage of profits into a trust to pay for projects. These include educational, social and healthcare projects, and are chosen by farm workers and smallholder committees. Money raised by the sale of Waitrose Foundation produce is therefore spent on projects that are chosen by and directly benefit the farm workers and smallholders.
